THE JOURNEY — Complete Song Lyrics

01 IN YOUR TRUTH

[Intro - Dark Ambient, Intimate Male Vocal]

The wine has failed
The vine is withered
The songs of men have fallen silent
And I stand among them
I chased their joy
I drank from their promises
I walked my own roads
Until I could no longer find my way home

[Verse 1 - Restrained]

I built my life on what would fade
I trusted what my eyes could see
I called my wandering liberty while every road was binding me
I knew Your voice and turned away
I knew Your word and chose my own
Now all the songs I followed die and I am standing here alone

[Pre-Chorus - Building]

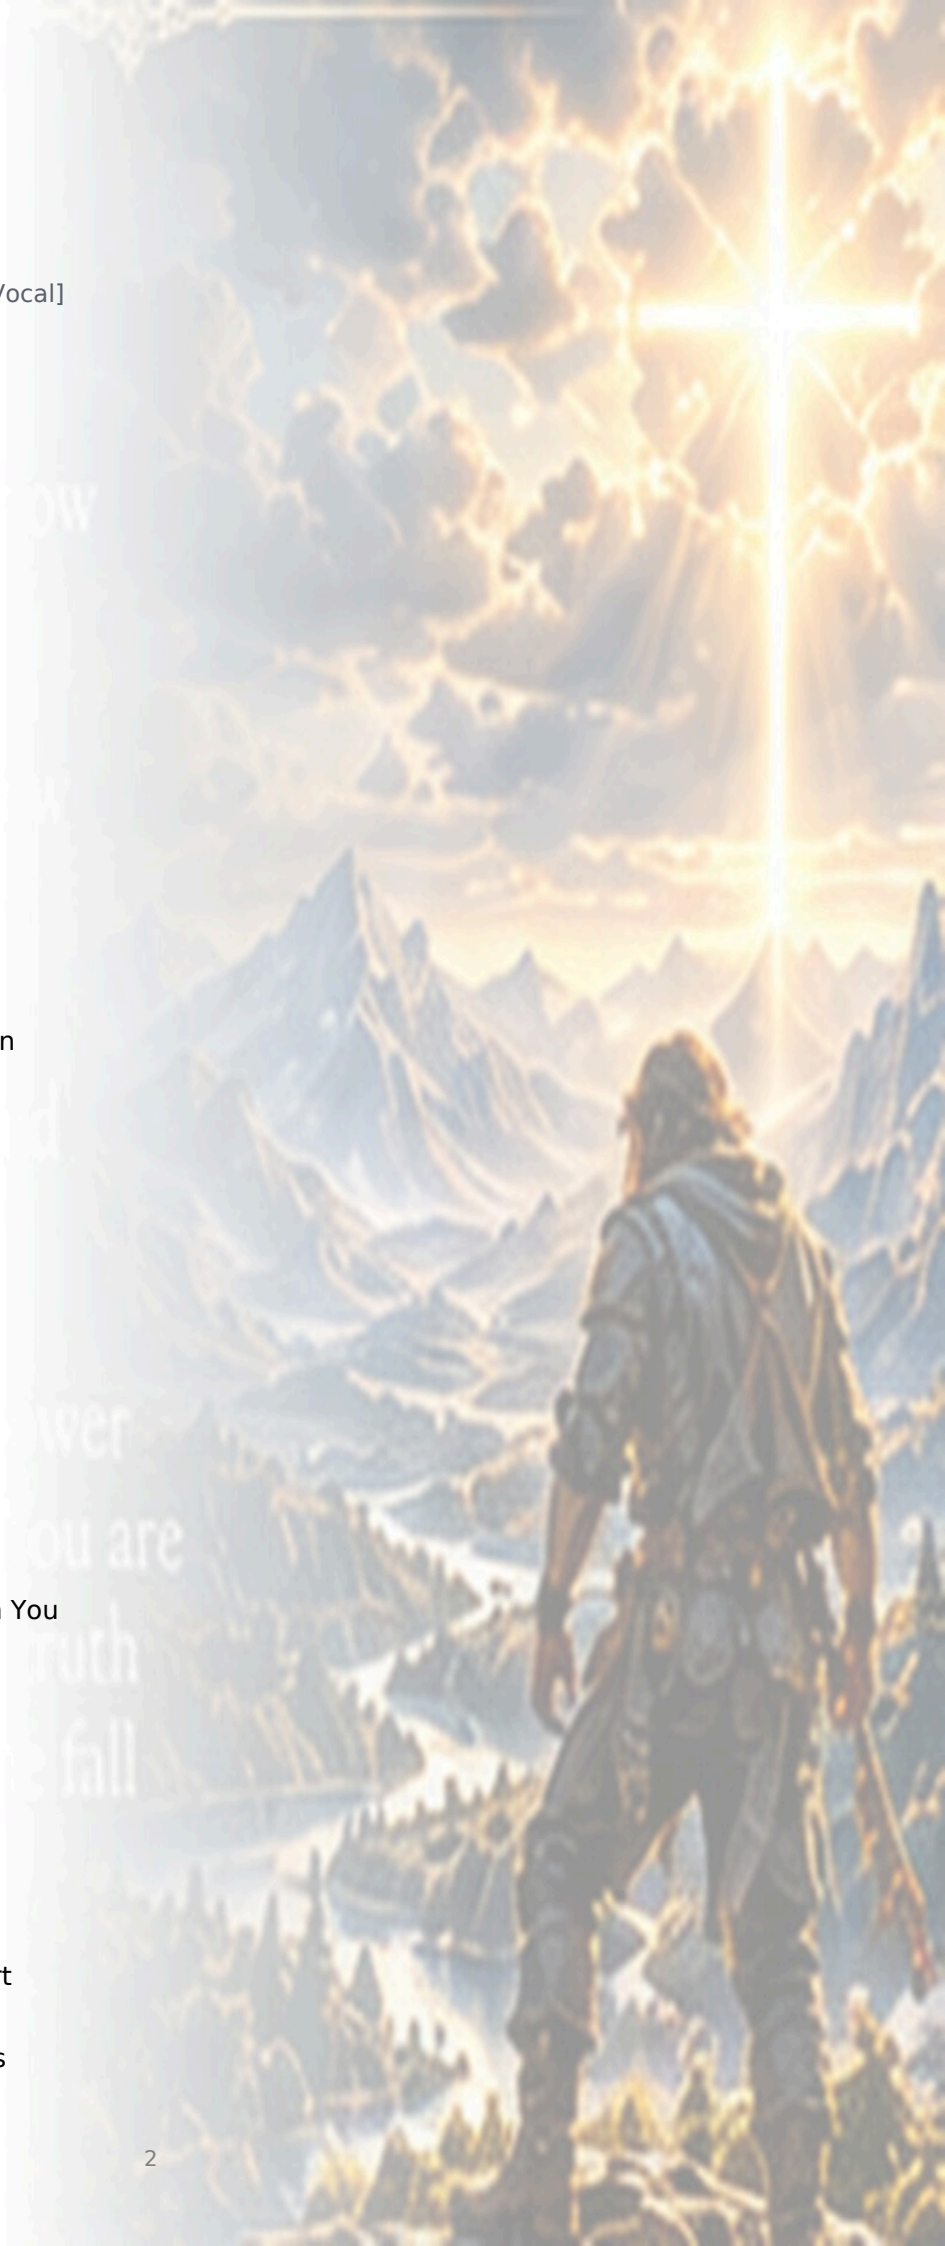

No more excuses
No other name to blame
The road was mine
The choice was mine
Lord, I have sinned

[Chorus - Heavy, Wide]

I run to You, my refuge
I have nowhere else to go
Take this heart that wandered from You
Take the roads I chose alone
I bring no righteousness before You
No victory of my own
Only mercy
Only truth
Lord, lead me home

[Verse 2 - Intimate, Clean]

Strip every falsehood from my heart
Every hidden thing I still defend Let repentance be more than words

Let the old road truly end
I have spent enough of this life following the voice of my own will Teach these wandering feet obedience Teach this restless heart to be still

[Interlude - Distant Male Choir]

There is peace for the one who walks uprightly Rest
when the journey is complete
No more running
No more wandering
Peace... before You

[Bridge - Dark Rising Tension]

But the darkness still speaks
The lie still rises
The enemy still comes Once I would have answered with anger of my own
Once I would have taken judgment into my hands
But I know these hands now
I know this heart
I am not the Judge

[Full Stop - Silence]

You are

[Psalm 54:7 - Massive Slow Riff]

Let evil return
upon my enemies
Not by my hand
BY YOURS
Not according to my anger
ACCORDING TO YOUR TRUTH
You see what I cannot see
You know what I cannot know
Every enemy
Every accusation
Every hidden work of darkness
INTO YOUR HANDS

[Pre-Breakdown - Rising Aggression]

I will not avenge myself
I will not become what I condemn
I will not call my hatred justice
You are faithful
You are righteous
YOU ARE JUDGE

[Breakdown - Crushing, Psalm 54:7 Climax]

LET EVIL
RETURN UPON THEM
IN YOUR TRUTH
CUT IT DOWN
LET EVERY LIE
COME INTO THE LIGHT
IN YOUR TRUTH
CUT IT DOWN
NOT MY REVENGE
YOUR JUDGMENT
NOT MY WRATH
YOUR WORD
NOT MY TRUTH
YOUR TRUTH

[Instrumental Breakdown]

[Sudden Silence]

[Quiet Bridge - Vulnerable, Repentant]

And if Your truth searches them let it search me first
If Your light exposes darkness leave none hidden inside me
For I too have wandered
I too have lied to my own heart
I too have needed mercy
Keep me near You, Lord
Keep me beneath Your hand
Never let me use Your justice to hide my own sin

[Final Chorus - Monumental, Male Choir]

YOU ARE MY REFUGE
WHEN THE ENEMY SURROUNDS ME
YOU ARE MY SHELTER
WHEN THE VOICES RISE
I WILL NOT ANSWER DARKNESS
WITH THE DARKNESS OF MY OWN HEART

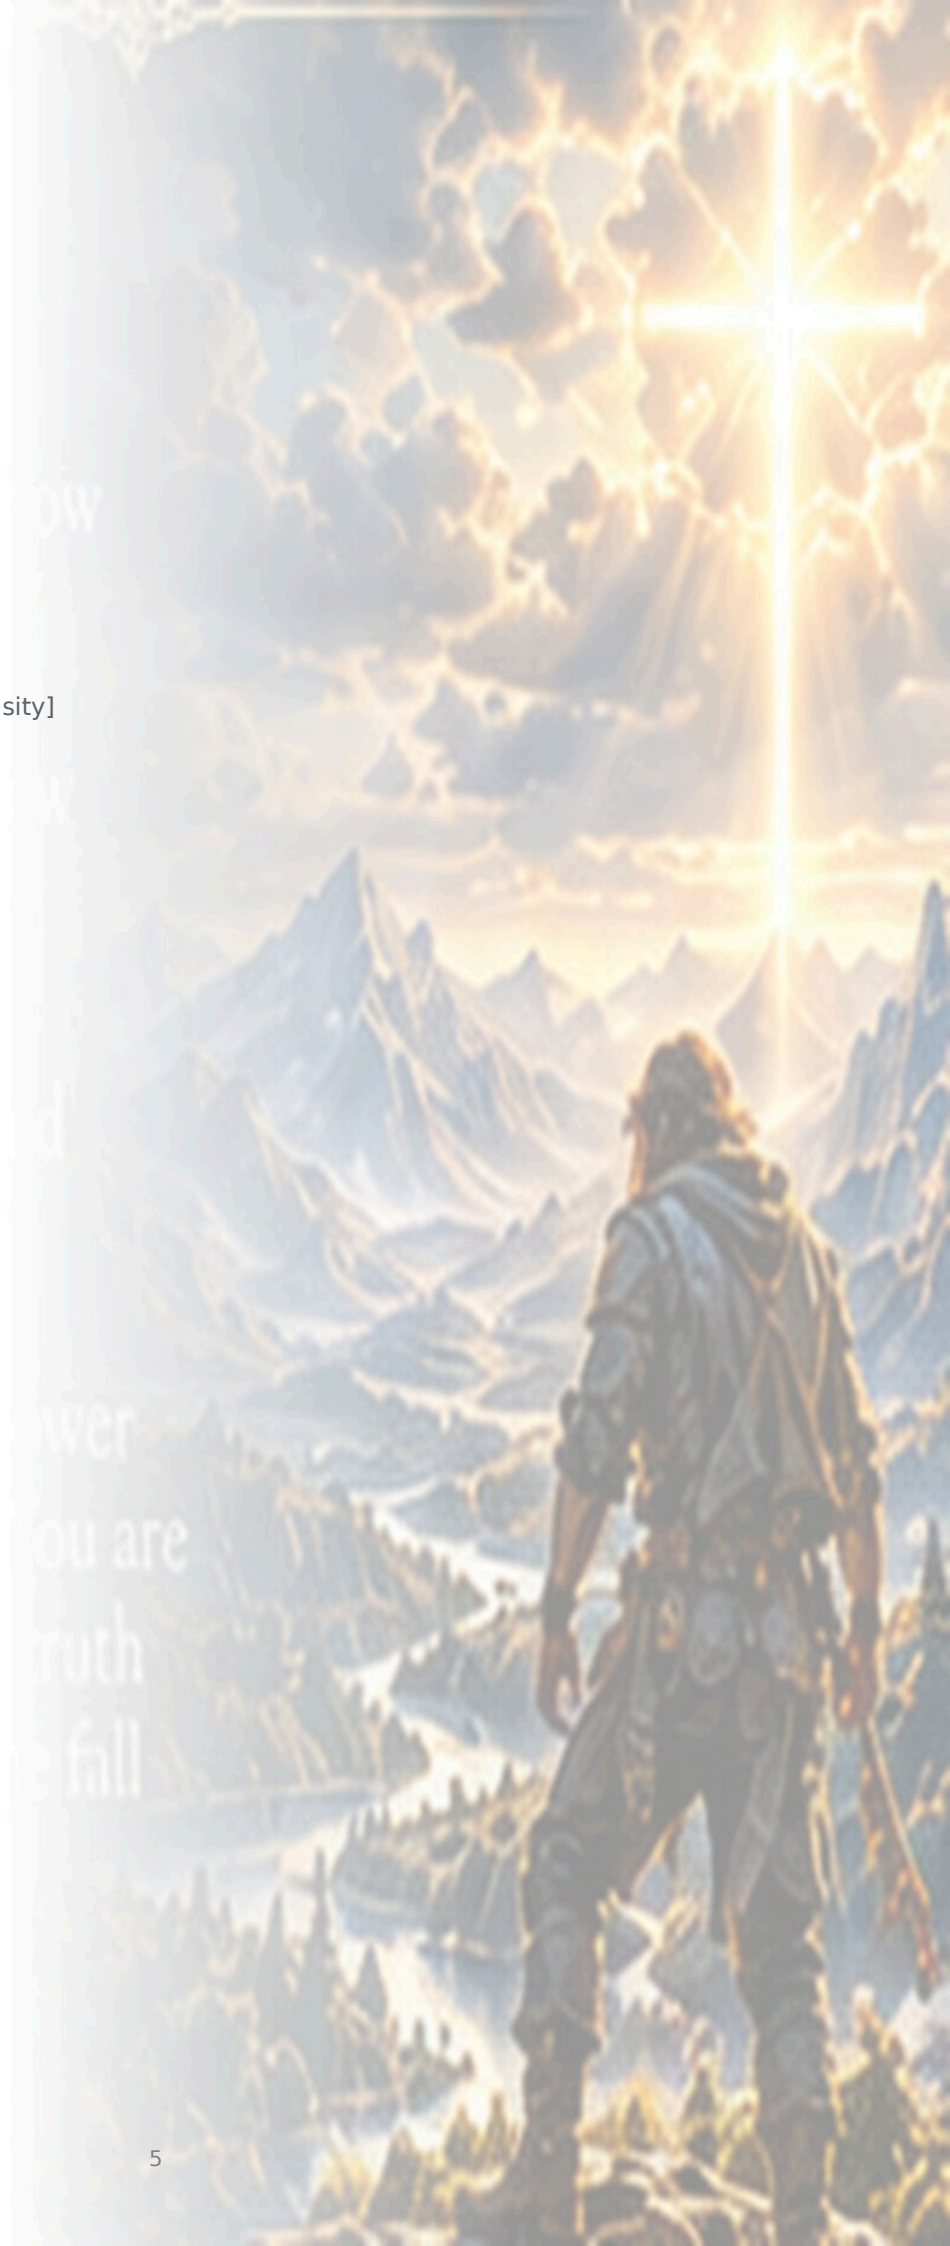

I GIVE THE JUDGMENT TO YOU
Let truth arise
Let falsehood fall
Let every hidden work stand before Your eyes
What must end
END IT
What must fall
LET IT FALL
According to Your faithfulness
According to Your righteousness
IN YOUR TRUTH

[Final Lift - Maximum Emotional Intensity]

IN YOUR TRUTH
NOT MINE
IN YOUR JUDGMENT
NOT MINE
IN YOUR HANDS
NOT MINE
I release the enemy
I release my anger
I release the right
I thought was mine
THE JUDGMENT
BELONGS TO YOU

[Outro - Clean Guitar, Distant Choir]

The songs of this world will fade
My own roads will end
The righteous will enter peace
So until that day
I will not be my own judge
I will not be my own refuge
I will walk beneath Your truth
And leave the enemy
in Your hands

02 BE MY REFUGE

[Intro - 0:00]

The vine is dry.
The cup is empty.
And I have finally learned the sound of my own road ending.

[Verse 1]

I knew Your voice and still chose mine.
Stone after stone,
I built a refuge
that could never shelter me.
I called it freedom.
You called me back.
And I kept walking.

[Pre-Chorus]

Now I come with nothing left to defend.
No borrowed innocence.
No righteous mask.
Lord—
I was wrong.

[Chorus]

BE MY REFUGE NOW.
Not the strength in my hands,
not the road beneath my feet.
I have trusted both before.
BE MY REFUGE NOW.
Take the man who made himself his guide—and lead him home.

[Verse 2 - Darker]

There are men who rise against me.
There are mouths
that speak my name with malice.
My blood remembers anger.
My hands remember how to answer.
But I will not build another altar to myself.

[Build - Increasing Tension]

I know what lives in me.
So I will not take
Your judgment
into these hands.
What they have done—
I place before You.
What I have done—
I place there too.

[Psalm 54:7 - Heavy]

Let evil return
upon my enemies.
Not because I command it.
Not because I deserve revenge.
But because
You are faithful.
And Your truth
does not bend.

[Breakdown]

I GIVE THEM TO YOU.
I GIVE MY ANGER TO YOU.
I GIVE MY CASE TO YOU.
Judge what I cannot judge.
See what I cannot see.
And in Your truth—DESTROY
WHAT STANDS
AGAINST YOU.

[Extended Guitar Solo - 45-55 seconds]

[Expressive Melodic Guitar Solo]

[Begin with a mournful single-note melody]

[Gradually rise into sustained bends and vocal-like phrasing]

[Develop into faster melodic runs over changing harmony]

[Final phrase climbs and holds above the returning band]

[No Vocals]

[Post-Solo - Band Drops Back]

And if that truth turns toward me—
I will not run.
Search me.
Correct me.
Keep me near You.
For I have walked my own roads long enough.

[Final Chorus - Maximum Lift]

YOU ARE MY REFUGE NOW.
The judgment is not mine.
The enemy is not mine to destroy.
My life is not mine
to rule.
YOU ARE MY REFUGE NOW.
When my road is finished,
let me enter Your peace.
Until then—
I stand beneath
Your truth.

[Outro]

No vengeance in my hands.
No crown upon my head.
Only this:
You are God.
I am Yours.

03 I KNOW THE ROCK

[Intro - Intimate, Alone]

I thought I knew the road.
Now water hides the ground, and every path behind me
bears the mark
of my own feet.
No map.
No answer.
Only one name
I have not forgotten.

[Verse 1 - Restrained]

I followed what I wanted, trusted what I knew.
I took the voice inside my head and called it something true.
Stone by stone I built these walls, then wondered where the daylight went.
I was so certain of my way...
until my way
came to an end.

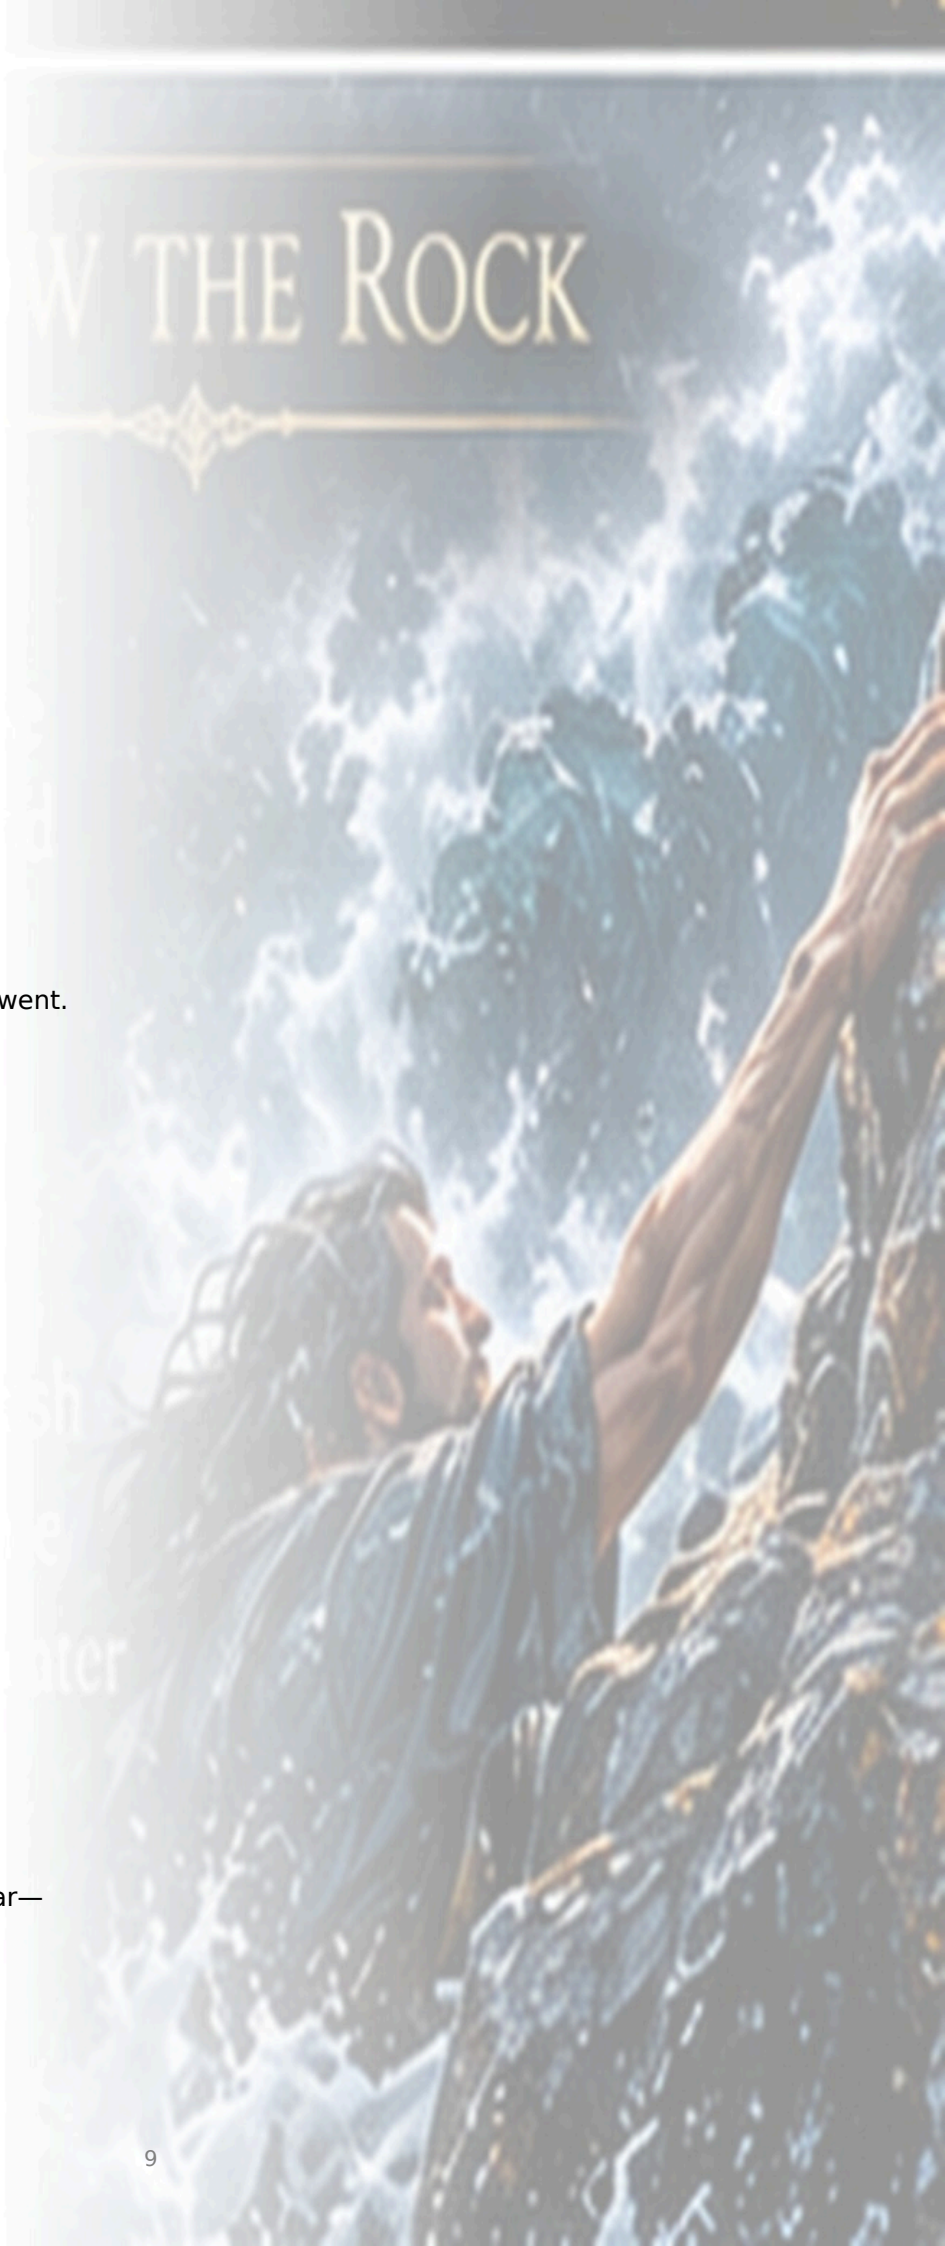

[Pre-Chorus - First Cry]

Lord—
I have no strength to climb from here.
No ground
beneath my feet.
If I am coming out—
You will have to reach me.

[Chorus 1 - Hope Awakens]

Will You reach into these waters?
Will You find me in the deep?
Will You lift me from the mire and put the rock beneath my feet?
I cannot see tomorrow.
I barely see today.
But somewhere underneath this fear—
I still remember
Your name.

[Verse 2 - Recognition]

Wait...
I know this hand.
I have felt it once before.
Different water.
Different walls.
The same God
at the door.
You heard me
when my voice was gone.
You held me
when I found no ground.
I thought that I survived the deep—
No.
YOU PULLED ME OUT.

[Build - Strength Growing]

Now I remember.
The depth beneath me never measured how far Your hand could reach.
The pit was never deeper than Your mercy.
The water never stronger than Your arm.
So let me learn what fear could never teach me:
I do not need to save myself.

[Psalm 18 / Psalm 40 - Massive]

FROM ABOVE—
YOU REACHED FOR ME.
FROM DEEP WATERS—
YOU DREW ME OUT.
FROM THE PIT—
YOU LIFTED ME.
ON THE ROCK—
YOU SET MY FEET.
When there was no room left to breathe—
YOU BROUGHT ME OUT INTO
PLACE.

[Instrumental Rise]

[Extended Guitar Solo - 40-45 seconds]

[Expressive melodic solo]

[Opening motif searching and restrained]

[Singing bends and long sustain]

[Motif returns stronger]

[Increasing confidence and speed]

[Soaring melodic peak]

[Heroic final sustained note]

[No Vocals]

[Post-Solo - Calm Strength]

Now I can see it.
Not the road.
Not tomorrow.
Something better.
I know
the One who leads me.

[Final Chorus - Hero Risen]

THIS IS MY PROPHECY.
Not a future I invented.
Not a crown I gave myself.
Not a promise born from pride to make me greater than I am.
MY PROPHECY
IS YOUR FAITHFULNESS.
The God who found me then will find me now.
If the waters rise—
I KNOW YOUR HAND.
If the ground gives way—
I KNOW THE ROCK.
If the road disappears—
I KNOW YOUR VOICE.
I do not need
to see the way.
I KNOW
WHO LEADS ME.

[Final Lift - Maximum Power]

I was the man

beneath the water.
I was the man
inside the pit.
I was the man who trusted only what his eyes could see.
LOOK AT ME NOW.
Not without scars.
Not without fear.
But standing.
I did not become strong because I never fell.
I became strong when I learned where strength comes from.
YOU REACHED DOWN.
YOU TOOK MY HAND.
YOU PULLED ME OUT.
YOU SET MY FEET.
AND NOW—
I WALK.

[Outro - Strong, Peaceful]

The pit was real.
The water was deep.
But Your hand
went deeper.
My prophecy?
You are faithful.
My road?
Where You lead.
And now...
I walk.

04 NEW CREATION

[INTRO — intimate, almost spoken]

Today
I hear You again.
Not from somewhere
beyond the sky.
Closer.
Like a voice
I once knew before the noise became my world.
And something in me
answers.
Lord...
I know You.

[VERSE 1]

I wore the name
the world had given,
built my life from dust and time.
I called the temporary permanent, and lived as though this earth were mine.
But You have touched
what I could never change.
The old has lost
its claim on me.
I opened my eyes
inside Your presence—and found a different man breathing.

[PRE-CHORUS]

I am not trying to become new.
You have already made me new.
I am not reaching for another life.
You placed it inside me.

[CHORUS]

I HAVE BEEN BORN AGAIN.

The old no longer
speaks my name.
I walk upon this earth,
but I do not belong
to what is passing away.
MY SPIRIT
IS JOINED TO YOURS.
My life is hidden
where this world cannot reach.
After all my wandering—
I FOUND
MY WAY HOME.

[VERSE 2 — stronger]

The streets are still the same.
The voices still call.
The kingdoms of men still rise and fall.
But something has changed
that cannot be undone.
I know now
where I belong.
Not to the fear.
Not to the hunger.
Not to the endless need to become enough.
You raised me
with Christ.
You gave me
what I could never earn.
And now I begin to understand.

[BUILD — increasing authority]

I thought I had to find You.
But You found me.
I thought I had to climb
until I reached You.
But You raised me.
I thought heaven was only somewhere
I would go.
Then You showed me who I already am in Christ.

[HEAVY DECLARATION — massive stops]

NEW CREATION.
OLD THINGS—
PASS AWAY.
ONE WITH THE LORD—
IN SPIRIT.
HIDDEN WITH CHRIST—
IN GOD.
RAISED WITH CHRIST.
SEATED WITH CHRIST.
I AM HERE—
BUT I AM NOT
FROM HERE.

[GUITAR SOLO — 35–40 sec]

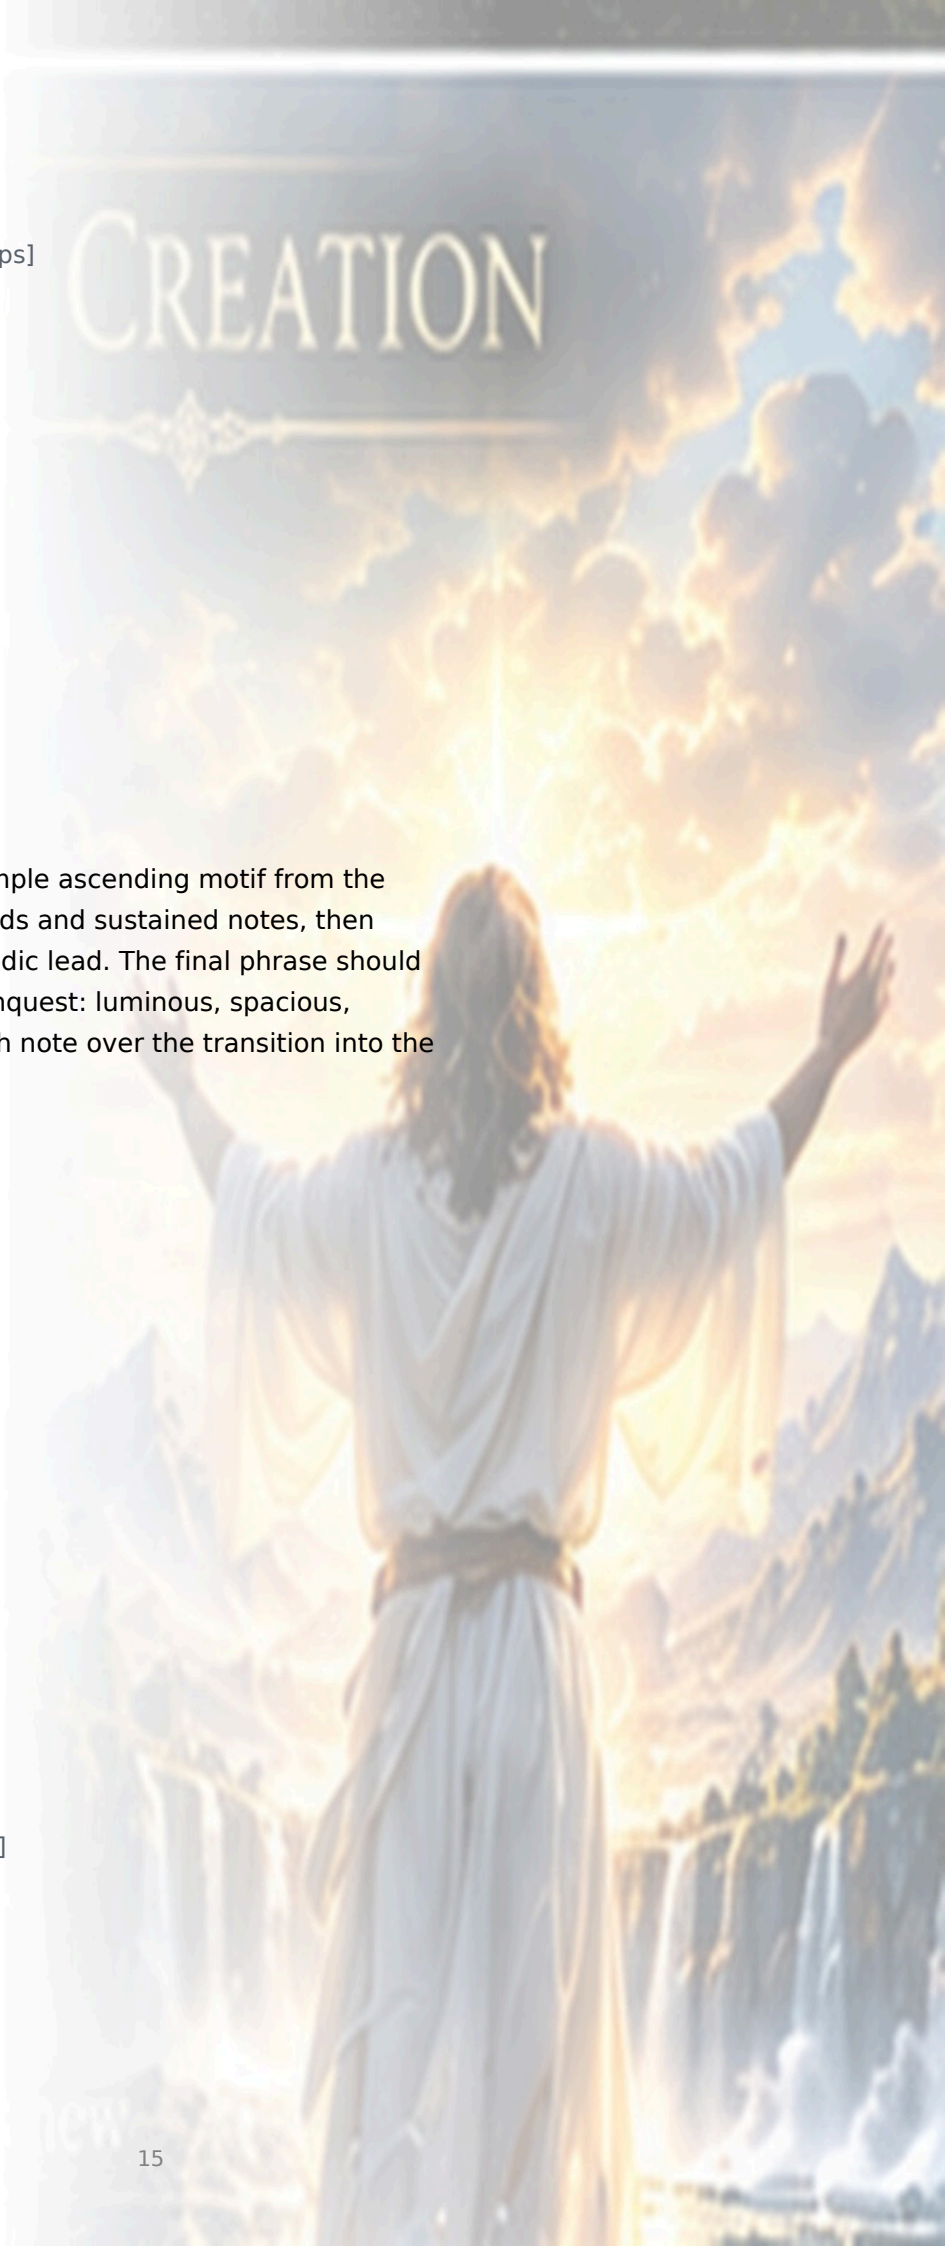

[Instrumental only. Begin with a simple ascending motif from the chorus melody. Long vocal-like bends and sustained notes, then gradually rise into a confident melodic lead. The final phrase should feel like recognition rather than conquest: luminous, spacious, resolved. End on one sustained high note over the transition into the final vocal.]

[POST-SOLO — quiet revelation]

So this is what
I was hearing.
Not a voice calling me toward some distant home.
The voice of the One who brought me home already.
My body walks
beneath this sky.
But my life...
my life
is hidden with You.

[FINAL CHORUS — full transformation]

I HAVE BEEN BORN AGAIN.
Not someday.
Not when I become worthy.
NOW.
The old no longer

speaks my name.
This world can surround me—
BUT IT CANNOT OWN ME.
MY SPIRIT
IS JOINED TO YOURS.
My life is hidden
with Christ in God.
You raised me
when I could not raise myself.
You seated me
where fear cannot rule.
And after all my wandering—
I finally know
where I belong.

[FINAL LIFT — largest moment]

I AM NOT
WHO I WAS.
I AM NOT
WHAT I LOST.
I AM NOT
THE NAME
THE WORLD
PUT ON ME.
I AM YOURS.
ALREADY YOURS.
I do not have
to earn the door.
I do not have
to climb the walls.
YOU GAVE ME LIFE.
YOU CALLED ME YOURS.
YOU BROUGHT ME HOME.
And now—
for the first time—
I know
who I am.

[OUTRO — band falls away]

Today
I heard You again.
And somewhere beneath all the noise...
my spirit

knew Your voice.
I am in this world.
But I am not
of this world.
My life
is hidden
with You.
I was searching for home.
Then I opened my eyes... and realized—
I was already there.

05 YOU TAKE THE HELM

[Verse 1]

I woke beneath a different sky,
The old life fading with the night.
You called my name; I came alive,
And now I walk where You lead me.
You go before, I follow close.
Through every road I do not know,
Your presence is my steady ground.
I was lost, but now I’m found.

[Chorus]

Jesus, You take the helm,
I leave the shore behind.
The wind may rise, the waters turn;
I know whose hand is guiding mine.
New horizons, new life in view—
I’m living in the Spirit, following You.

[Verse 2]

A white boat waits upon the sea.
You stand at the wheel and look at me.
I take my seat; the sail fills wide.
The harbor falls behind.
The sun brings fruit I could not grow;
The passing moons bring gifts I’ll know.
In every season, day and night,
Your blessing meets me on this ride.

[Chorus]

Jesus, You take the helm,
I leave the shore behind.
The wind may rise, the waters turn;
I know whose hand is guiding mine.
New horizons, new life in view—
I’m living in the Spirit, following You.

[Bridge]

I don’t need to see the distant land.
I see the wheel beneath Your hands.
What lies ahead is Yours to show;
Just speak the word, and I will go.

[Final Chorus]

Jesus, You take the helm,

The morning breaks across the tide.
You go before; I follow You.
The life You gave has opened wide.
New horizons, new life in view—
I’m living in the Spirit, following You.

[Outro]

You go before.
I follow You.

06 YOUR HANDS ARE ALL I NEED

[Verse 1]

The last lights fade along the shore,
My hands still gripping tight.
The white hull rises with the swell
And carries us into the night.
You stand beside the turning wheel,
I watch Your hands, then watch the sea.
I thought I’d left my fears behind,
But they came aboard with me.

[Pre-Chorus]

You turn to me and say my name.
I let the silence break.
The things I never dared to speak—
I bring them all to You.

[Chorus]

I lay my burdens in Your hands,
The fears I carried from the shore.
I hear Your voice above the waves,
And I can breathe once more.
I cannot see the distant land,
But You are here with me.
Jesus, hold me through this night—
Your hands are all I need.

[Verse 2]

I tell You of the days I lost,
The ones I could not save,
The words that keep me wide awake,
The strength I tried to fake.
You listen till the words run out.
No shame upon Your face.
My fingers loosen from the rail;
I leave that weight in grace.

[Pre-Chorus]

The boat still moves beneath my feet,
The wind still fills the sail.
I take a breath and sit with You;
I trust You with the rest.

[Chorus]

I lay my burdens in Your hands,

The fears I carried from the shore.
I hear Your voice above the waves,
And I can breathe once more.
I cannot see the distant land,
But You are here with me.
Jesus, hold me through this night—
Your hands are all I need.

[Guitar Solo]

[Bridge — quiet, intimate]

Here is tomorrow.
Here is my past.
Here are the questions
I've held so fast.
Here in the darkness,
With nothing to prove,
I open my hands
And give them to You.

[Final Chorus — full band]

I lay my burdens in Your hands,
The fears I carried from the shore.
I hear Your voice above the waves,
And I can breathe once more.
Before the morning finds this boat,
Before the land comes into view,
I rest beneath the open sky—
My life is safe with You.

[Outro — almost whispered]

The waves still rise.
The night runs deep.
Your hands hold the wheel.
I fall asleep.

07 THE FUTURE YOU HOLD

[Verse 1]

Morning falls across my face,
I wake beneath an open sky.
The white boat dances on the tide;
I watch the seabirds passing by.
Your hands are steady on the wheel,
Just as they were throughout the night.
A distant shoreline meets my eyes,
And something in my heart comes alive.

[Pre-Chorus]

I rise and stand beside You,
The wind upon my skin.
“Jesus, what have You prepared?”
I’m ready to begin.

[Chorus]

You hold my future,
You know the way.
Your love goes before me
Into each new day.
A life full of purpose,
A heart learning hope—
Jesus, I’m ready
For the future You hold.

[Verse 2]

I used to count the wasted years
And wonder what was left for me.
Now sunlight fills the empty seat
Where all my fears had tried to sleep.
You stayed with me through every word;
You heard the things I could not hide.
And here You are, still leading on,
With room for me here by Your side.

[Pre-Chorus]

I don’t know every harbor,
Or all that I will do.
But I can take the next step
When I take that step with You.

[Chorus]

You hold my future,

You know the way.
Your love goes before me
Into each new day.
A life full of purpose,
A heart learning hope—
Jesus, I’m ready
For the future You hold.

[Melodic Guitar Solo]

[Bridge — quiet, intimate]

What will these hands be used for?
Whose burden can I share?
Where will Your kindness send me?
Jesus, lead me there.
You’ve given me this new life;
Let Your love come shining through.
With every gift You’ve placed in me,
Let me walk this road with You.

[Build]

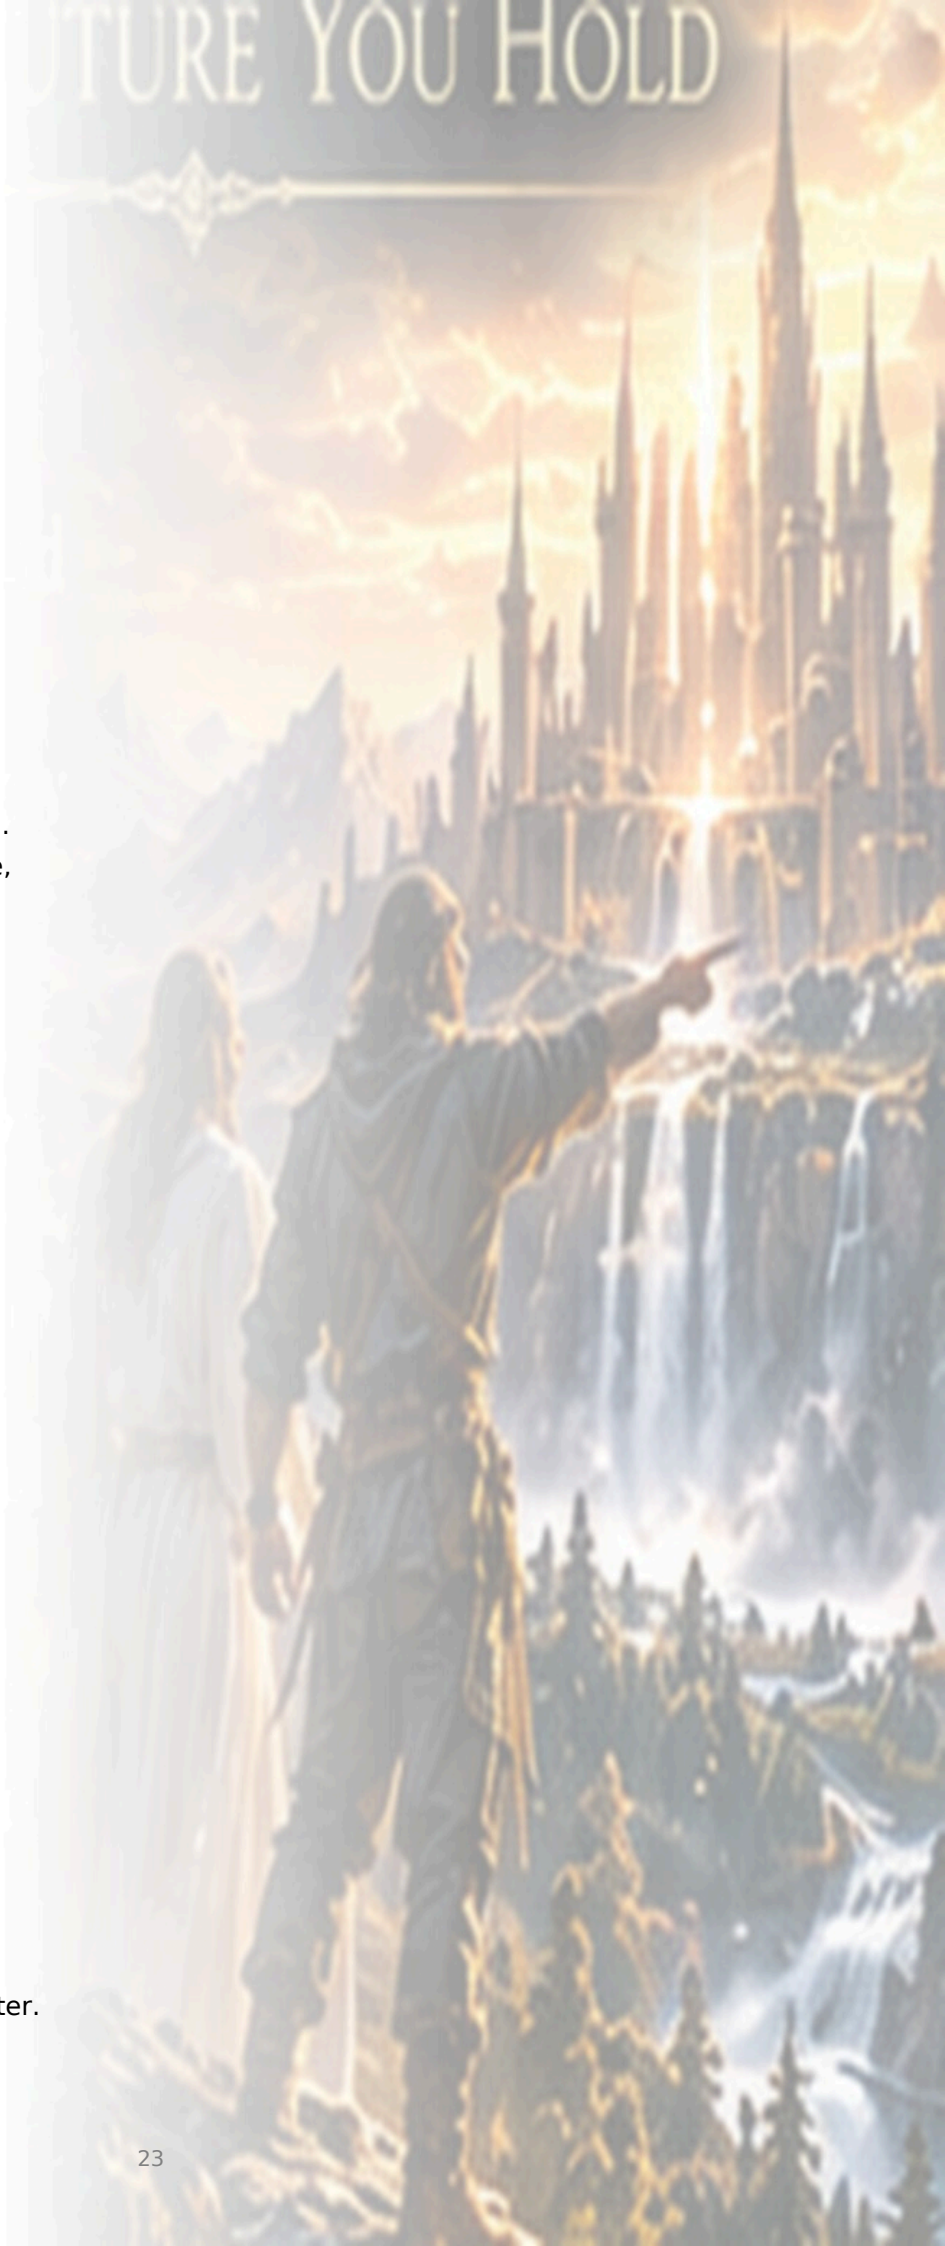

The shore is drawing closer.
I’m standing at Your side.
You smile as I look forward—
My heart is open wide.

[Final Chorus — full band]

You hold my future,
You know the way.
Your love goes before me
Into each new day.
A life full of purpose,
A heart learning hope—
Jesus, I’m ready
For the future You hold.
You hold my future,
And I’m here with You.
The morning is golden;
There’s so much left to do.
With peace in Your presence
And joy in my soul—
Jesus, I’m ready
For the future You hold.

[Outro]

The white boat reaches shallow water.
You turn and offer me Your hand.

I take it as the morning opens—
Together, we step onto the land.

08 YOU LIVE IN ME

[Verse 1]

The sand is warm beneath my feet,
The white boat rests beside the shore.
You walk with me into the day;
I wonder what these hands are for.
Beyond the dunes, a crowded street,
A thousand lives I've never known.
I pause before we reach the road—
What could I give them of my own?

[Pre-Chorus]

Then I recall the love You gave,
The cross You bore for me.
The life I live is Yours to fill;
Your Spirit breathes in me.

[Chorus]

You live in me,
Jesus, You live in me.
The One who loved and gave His life
Has made His home in me.
With every breath,
With every step I take,
Let the love You poured into my heart
Reach someone on the way.
You live in me.

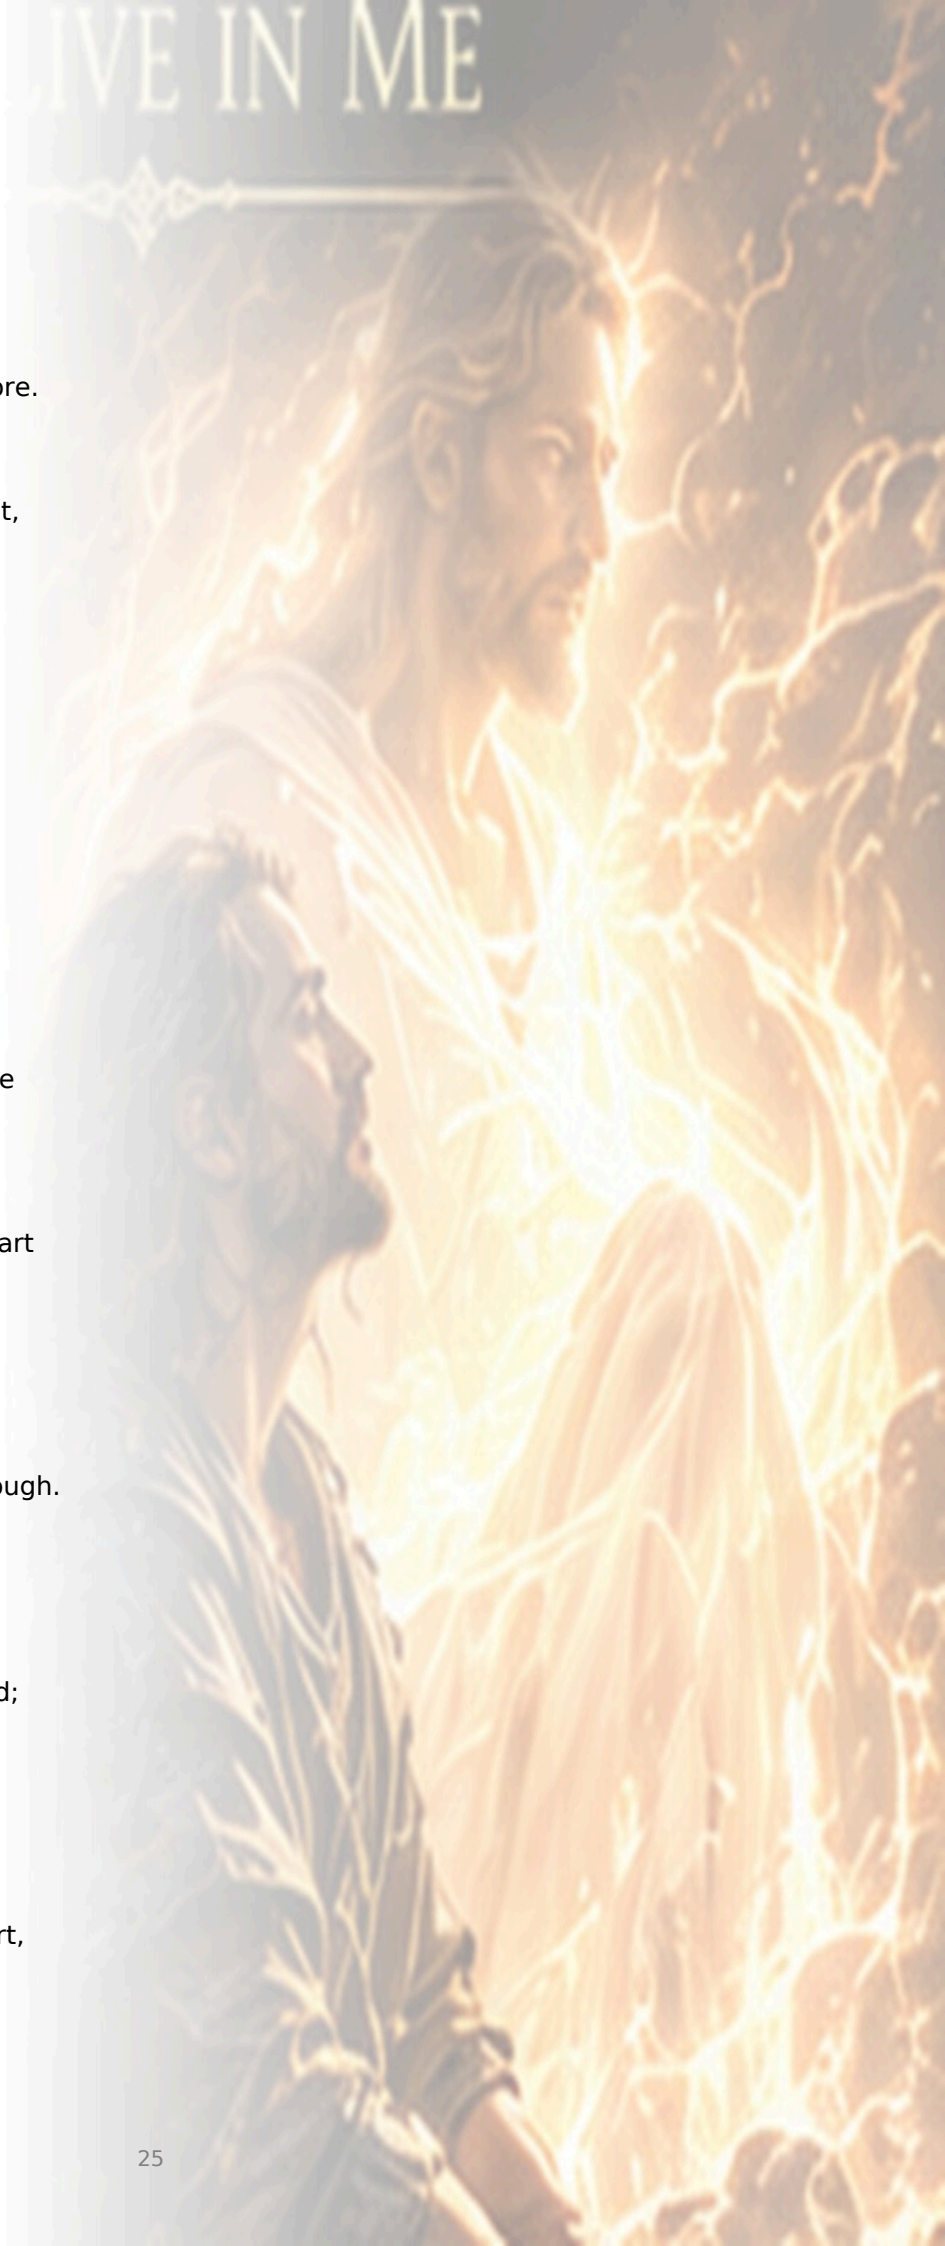

[Verse 2]

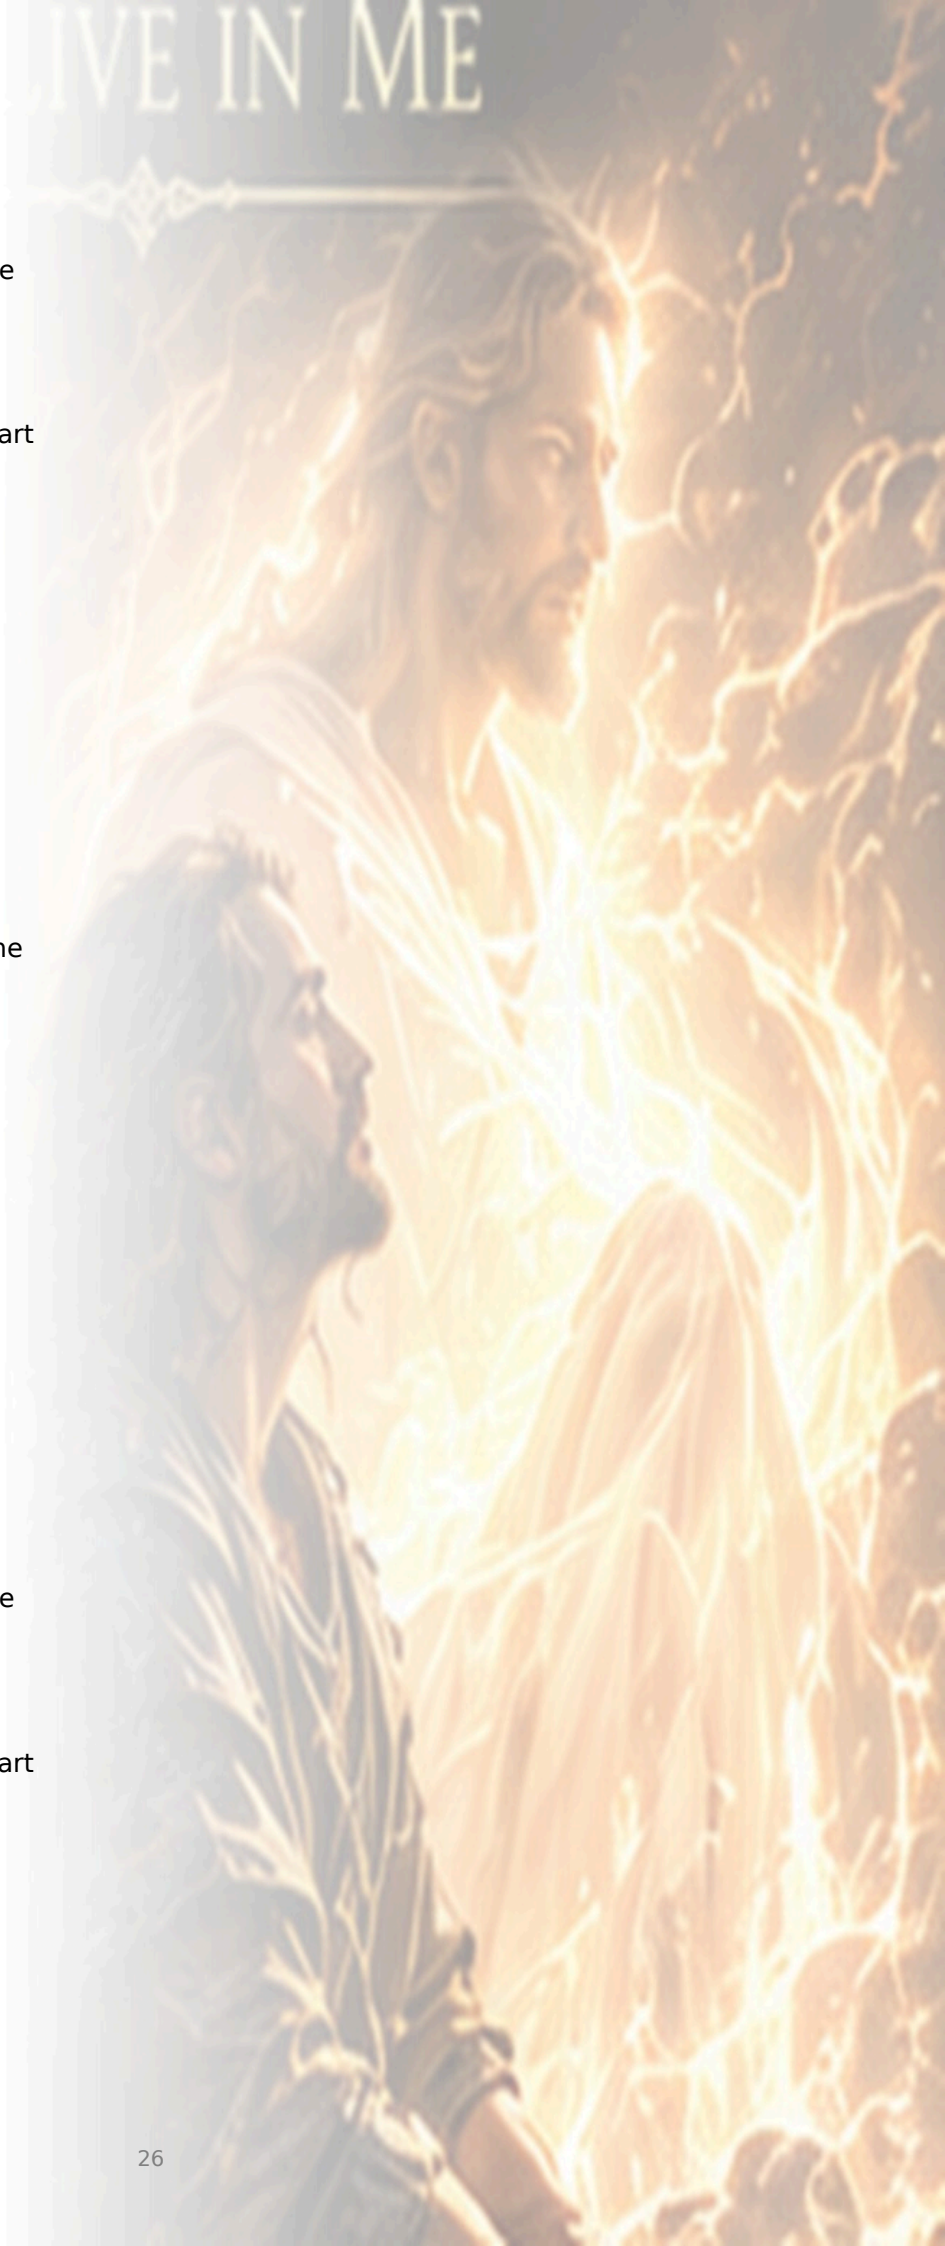

I used to hide behind my words,
Afraid that someone might see through.
But You have seen me as I am,
And still You call me loved by You.
I don't have every answer yet,
But I have time to stop and hear.
There's someone sitting by the road;
I take a breath and draw him near.

[Pre-Chorus]

The love that met me in the dark
Now gives me strength to stay.
You're here within this beating heart,
And faith becomes a step today.

[Chorus]

You live in me,
Jesus, You live in me.
The One who loved and gave His life
Has made His home in me.
With every breath,
With every step I take,
Let the love You poured into my heart
Reach someone on the way.
You live in me.

[Melodic Guitar Solo]

[Bridge — quiet, intimate]

You loved me first,
Before I knew Your name.
You held me close
Through all my fear and shame.
Now let my hands be open,
Let me listen, let me see.
Let the kindness You have shown me
Flow to others freely.

[Build]

He lifts his eyes.
I kneel beside him.
There’s time enough
To hear his story.
I stay with him
Until he rises—
Your love has brought Us both this far.

[Final Chorus — full band]

You live in me,
Jesus, You live in me.
The One who loved and gave His life
Has made His home in me.
With every breath,
With every step I take,
Let the love You poured into my heart
Reach someone on the way.
You live in me,
Your Spirit makes me new.
This life I live, I live by faith
In the Son of God—in You.
You loved me first;
Your love has set me free.

Now every road becomes a place
To give what You’ve given me.
You live in me.

[Outro — warm, gentle]

I reach my hand toward the stranger,
The way You reached Your hand to me.
He takes it, and we walk together.
Jesus, You live in me.

09 YOU HAVE NO CLAIM ON ME

[Intro — low, spoken]

I know that voice.
I know those chains.
But I belong to Jesus now.

[Verse 1]

The road grows narrow past the shore,
I hear a footstep close behind.
A voice that used to rule my days
Starts dragging through my mind.
It names the things I wish undone,
It knows the places where I fell.
Then whispers, “You’re still one of mine.
I know your story far too well.”

[Pre-Chorus]

My heart beats hard; I turn around.
I feel the earth beneath my feet.
Jesus, You are here with me.
I stand in what You did for me.

[Chorus]

You have no claim on me!
Jesus has set me free!
Your accusations meet the cross—
He gave His life for me.
I stand beneath His mighty name,
Your chains won’t hold me anymore.
You have no claim on me!
I’m walking with the Lord.

[Verse 2]

You offer me familiar roads,
The comfort of a closing door.
You say the freedom won’t endure,
That I’ll come crawling back once more.
But Christ lives in this beating heart,
His love has met my deepest shame.
I hear you calling from behind—
I keep on walking in His name.

[Pre-Chorus]

I give myself to God again,
My voice grows steady as I speak.

Jesus, You are Lord of my life.
Your strength sustains me when I’m weak.

[Chorus]

You have no claim on me!
Jesus has set me free!
Your accusations meet the cross—
He gave His life for me.
I stand beneath His mighty name,
Your chains won’t hold me anymore.
You have no claim on me!
I’m walking with the Lord.

[Guitar Solo — tense opening, triumphant resolution]

[Bridge — stripped back, firm]

I submit to God.
I resist your lies.
I lift my head
And meet His eyes.
My life is His.
My hope is sure.
Jesus, You are Lord—
Today and evermore.

[Build — drums and riff return]

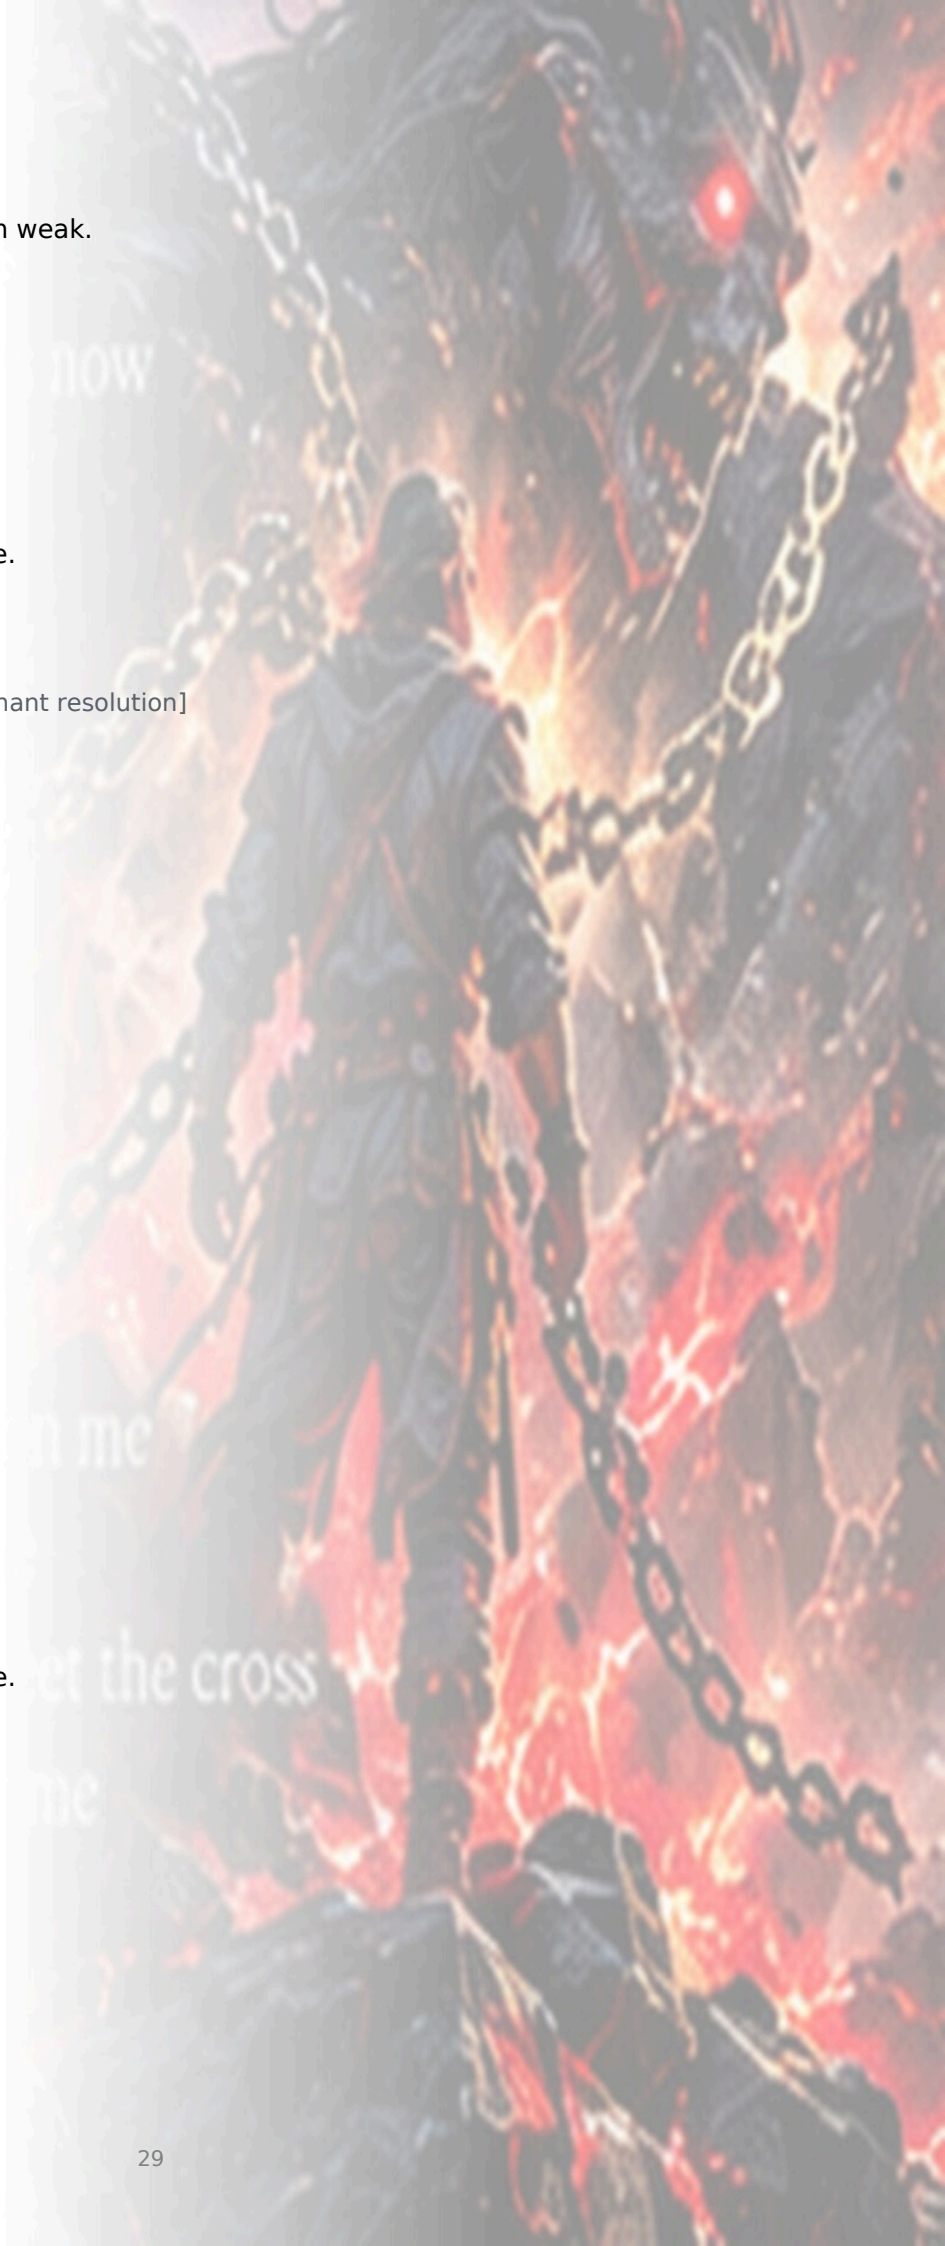

The voice falls silent.
The road lies clear.
I take another step—
My Lord is here.

[Final Chorus]

You have no claim on me!
Jesus has set me free!
Your accusations meet the cross—
He gave His life for me.
I stand beneath His mighty name,
Your chains won’t hold me anymore.
You have no claim on me!
I’m walking with the Lord.

[Outro — decisive]

I know that voice.
I leave it behind.
Jesus goes before me.
His life is mine.

10 CALL ME RELIGIOUS

[Intro — whispered accusations, dark guitar pulse]

"Religious!"
"Bible believer!"
"Out of your mind!"
"You still believe in that?"

[Intro — low, spoken male voice]

I hear your words.
I know your game.
But I don't live for your approval.
I belong to Jesus Christ.

[Verse 1 — heavy palm-muted guitars]

You point your fingers, call me blind,
A relic of another time.
You laugh at every word I say,
And tell me faith has had its day.
You call me narrow, call me weak,
Condemn the very truth I speak.
But I have walked where shadows reign,
And Christ has broken every chain.

[Pre-Chorus — rising drums, building tension]

You want me silent, want me small,
To hide the One who broke my fall.
But there's a fire you cannot tame,
And I will never hide His name!

[Chorus — explosive, anthemic]

Call me religious, call me blind,
You cannot change what lives inside!
I don't bow down to your demands,
My life is held in Jesus' hands!
No empty rules, no chains of shame,
Christ lives in me — I bear His name!
You can shout until the heavens shake,
But His love is something you can't take!

[Verse 2 — driving riffs, aggressive vocals]

You wear your freedom like a crown,
Then try to drag my freedom down.
You preach your tolerance to me,
But hate the faith that set me free.
You say the Bible's out of date,

And turn my hope into your hate.
But truth is not a passing trend,
His living Word will never end!

[Pre-Chorus — stronger, double kick]

I won't repay your hate with hate,
I know the love that changed my fate.
You cannot steal what grace has won,
My life is hidden in the Son!

[Chorus — full power]

Call me religious, call me blind,
You cannot change what lives inside!
I don't bow down to your demands,
My life is held in Jesus' hands!
No empty rules, no chains of shame,
Christ lives in me — I bear His name!
You can shout until the heavens shake,
But His love is something you can't take!

[Bridge — half-time, confrontational]

You call it weakness —
I call it grace!
You see a rebel —
He sees His child!
You speak of religion...

[Full band stop — shouted]

I SPEAK OF JESUS CHRIST!

[Instrumental — 30-second melodic metal guitar solo]

[Soaring lead guitar, harmonized twin guitars, driving bass, powerful drums, rising into final chorus]

[Final Chorus — triumphant, full band]

Call me religious, call me blind,
You cannot change what lives inside!
I don't bow down to your demands,
My life is held in Jesus' hands!
No empty rules, no chains of shame,
Christ lives in me — I bear His name!
I'm not ashamed, I'll stand and sing,
Jesus Christ — my Lord and King!

[Outro — heavy final riff, drums stop]

[Low spoken voice]

Not religion.
Not fear.
Not shame.
Christ lives in me.

[Final shouted line]

JESUS CHRIST IS LORD!

[End — final sustained guitar chord]

11 THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON

[Intro — atmospheric clean guitar, distant thunder, low spoken male voice]

I walked through darkness.
I heard the lies.
I faced the hatred of this world.
I carried chains I could not break.
I fought the battles I could not win.
But I was never fighting alone.

[Heavy guitars enter — powerful melodic riff]

[Verse 1 — gritty male baritone, driving rhythm]

I walked the valleys cold and deep,
Where broken promises never sleep.
I heard the voices call my name,
And tried to bury all my shame.
I faced the shadows of my past,
The chains I thought would always last.
But through the darkness came the light,
And Jesus brought me back to life!

[Pre-Chorus — rising intensity]

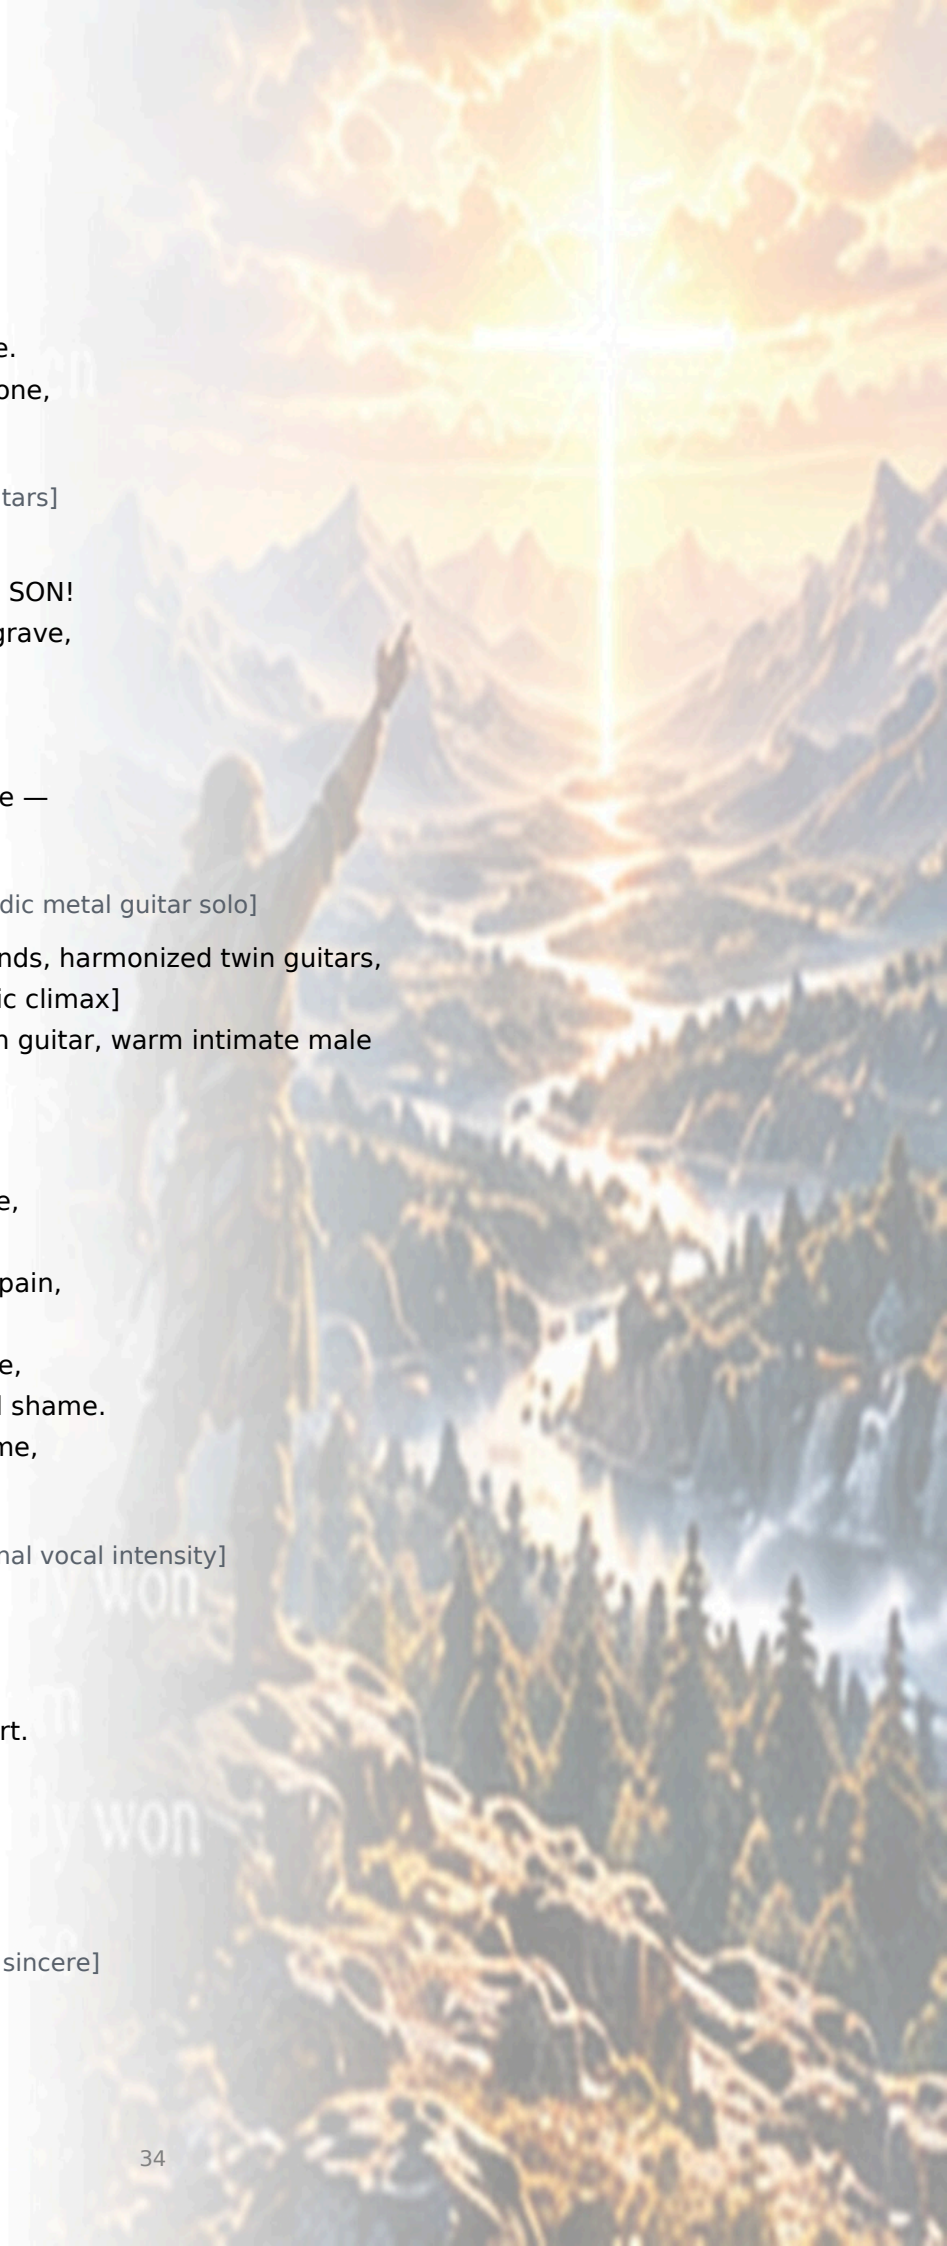

Not by my strength, not by my hand,
Not by the courage of a man.
The cross has spoken, death is done,
The battle's over through the Son!

[Chorus — explosive, anthemic, full band]

THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!
THE BATTLE ENDED THROUGH THE SON!
No power of darkness, no fear, no grave,
Can take the life that Jesus gave!
I stand redeemed, forever free,
His resurrection lives in me!
The cross has spoken, death is gone —
THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!

[Verse 2 — heavier riffs, driving double kick]

They called me foolish, called me blind,
Said I had left the world behind.
They laughed at everything I knew,
But never saw what Christ could do.
I don't need glory, wealth or fame,
I have a life beyond my name.
And though the storms may still arise,

His love will never leave my side!

[Pre-Chorus — powerful vocal rise]

No accusation, no disgrace,
Can tear me from His endless grace.
No height, no depth, no earthly throne,
Can claim the life He calls His own!

[Chorus — full power, harmonized guitars]

THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!
THE BATTLE ENDED THROUGH THE SON!
No power of darkness, no fear, no grave,
Can take the life that Jesus gave!
I stand redeemed, forever free,
His resurrection lives in me!
The cross has spoken, death is gone —
THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!

[Instrumental — 35-second epic melodic metal guitar solo]

[Soaring lead guitar, expressive bends, harmonized twin guitars, powerful drums, triumphant melodic climax]
[Breakdown — music drops to clean guitar, warm intimate male voice]

[Bridge — The Invitation]

I know the darkness where you hide,
The silent tears you keep inside.
I've walked that road, I've felt that pain,
I thought I'd never rise again.
But Jesus came and called my name,
His love broke through my fear and shame.
And what He did for someone like me,
He offers you — His grace is free.

[Build — drums slowly return, emotional vocal intensity]

You don't have to earn His love,
You don't have to hide your scars.
He knows exactly who you are,
He sees the wounds upon your heart.
He gave His life to set you free,
He rose again in victory.
And now He's calling out to you —
His love is faithful, His word is true!

[Spoken — almost silence, direct and sincere]

You have heard my story.
Now let me ask you...

Will you trust the One who died for you?
Will you open your heart to Jesus Christ?

[Full band returns — massive triumphant riff]

[Final Chorus — The Invitation, soaring vocals]

THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!
THE DOOR IS OPEN THROUGH THE SON!
No chain too strong, no night too deep,
His love is yours, His word He'll keep!
Come as you are, don't turn away,
His grace is reaching you today!
The cross has spoken, death is gone —
THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!

[Final Refrain — higher intensity, twin guitars]

THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!
ETERNAL LIFE THROUGH GOD'S OWN SON!
The stone was rolled, the grave is bare,
His living hope is everywhere!
No more running, no more fear,
The Savior's calling — He is near!
Lift your eyes and see the Son —
THE VICTORY IS ALREADY WON!

[Outro — heavy guitars, final sustained chord]

[Music fades to a single clean guitar]

[Low spoken male voice]

I found my life in Jesus Christ.
And you can find yours too.
He is the way.
He is the truth.
He is the life.

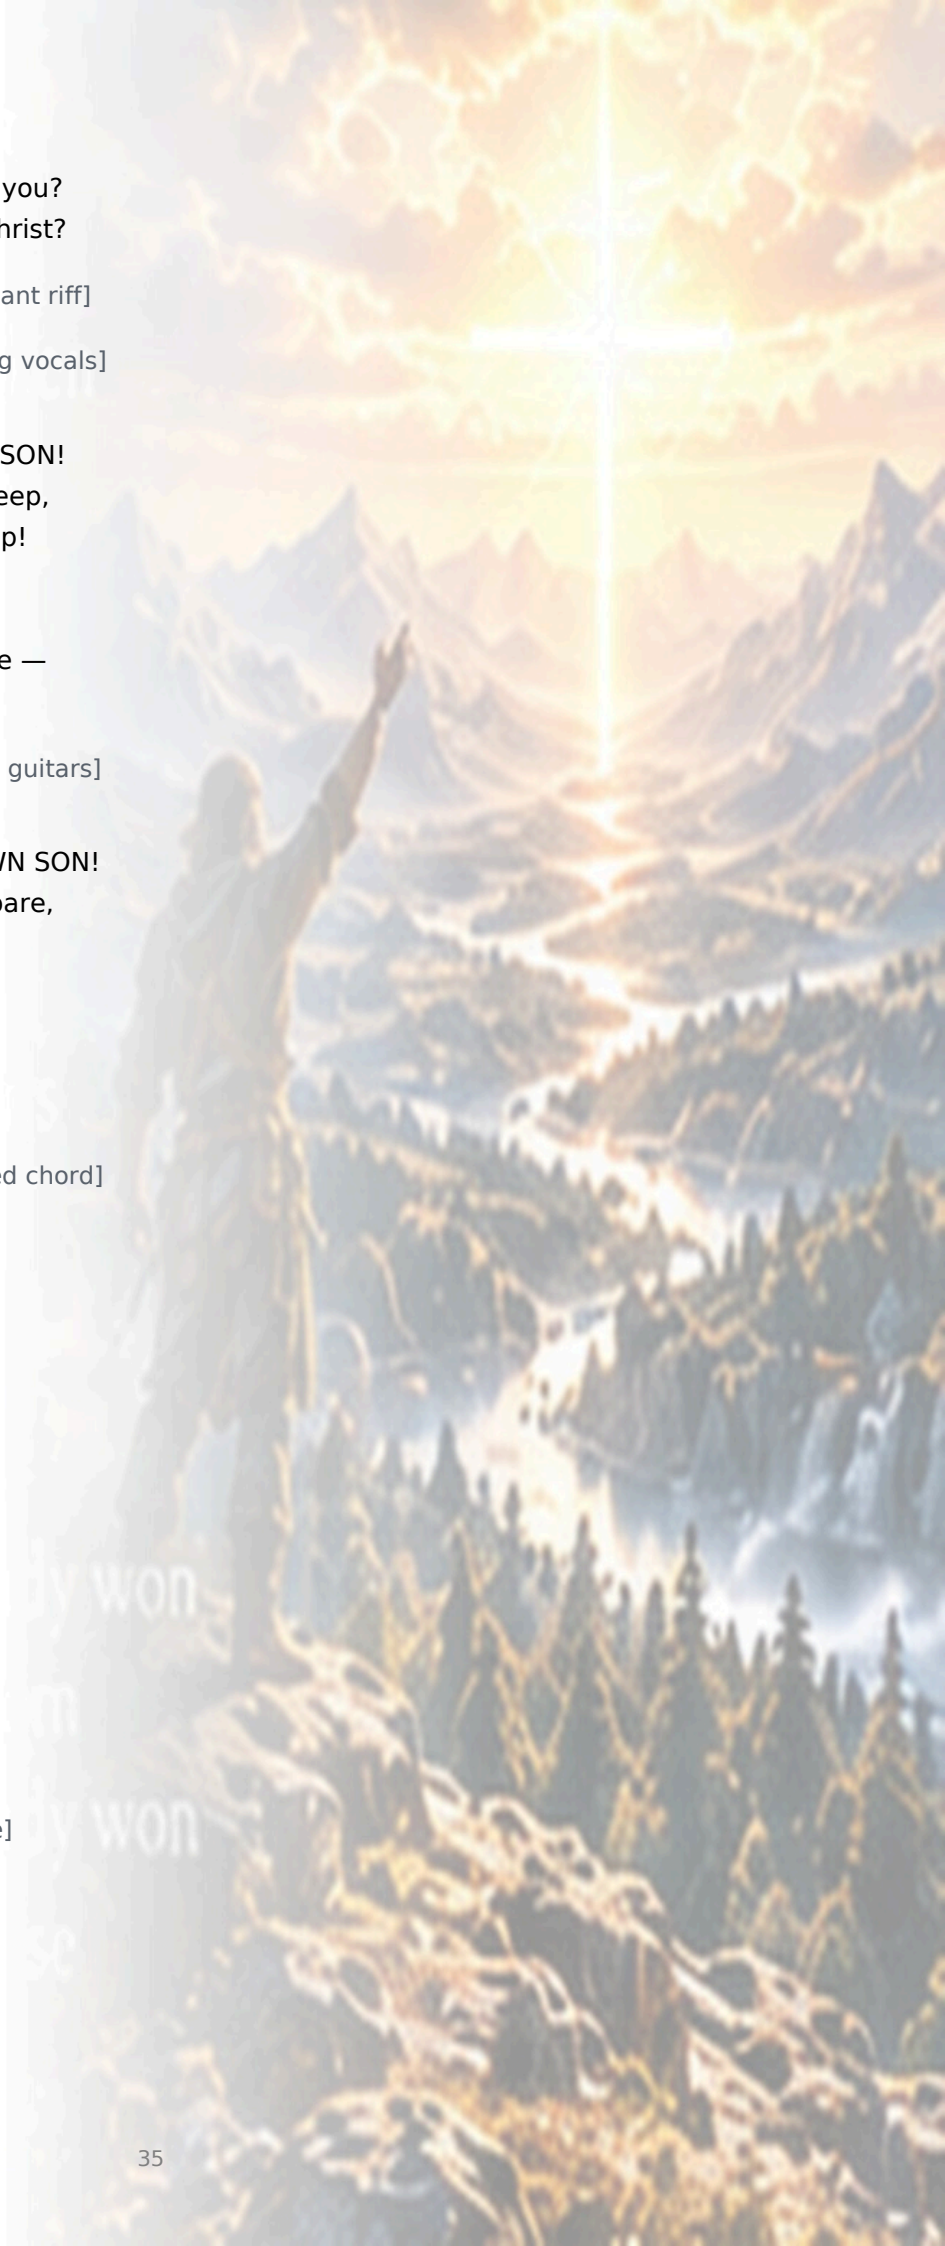

[Pause]

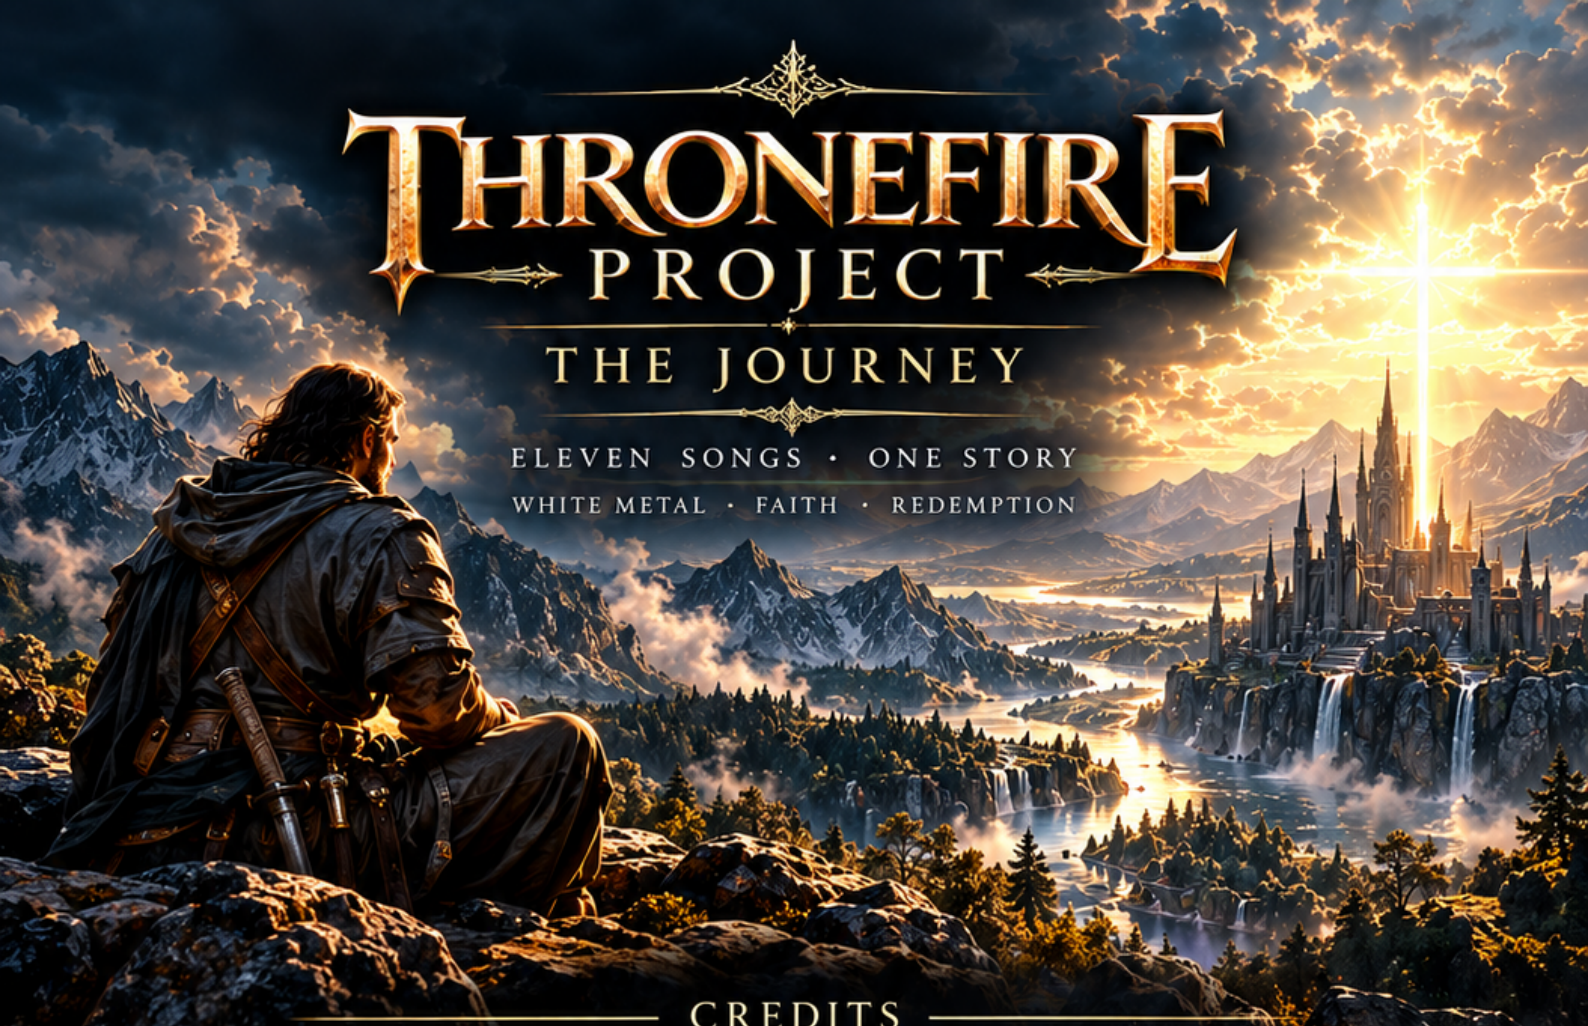

Come to Jesus.

[Softly spoken]

Come home.

[End — final clean guitar note, silence]
